Capture Politics' Report on The Growth of the Green Party

Since 2019, their largest gains have come from disillusioned younger, educated progressive renters who have left Labour.

Where? - Since 2019: A move from Labour

Capture Politics

Data relates to Green 2026 supporters

2019 → 2026

Others - 5.7%

Labour: 61% (biggest gain)

Lib-Dem: 11%

Green: 14%

Reform: 0.3%

Tory: 8%

Who?

Younger: 50% (+15%)

More University Educated: 48% (+12%)

More BAME: 22% (+6%)

Renters: 20% & Mortgage owners: 31% (+9%)

Income & Class reflect national averages

Priorities & perceptions differ from the wider electorate

Biggest Issue

1. Economy: 40% (+2%)
2. Environment: 14% (+10%)
3. Immigration: 2% (-20%)

Feel Greens perform best on key issues

Unhappiness with Labour & Starmer on key issues driving the Green surge

Favourability Rating	😊	😐	☹️
Polanksi	65% (+52%)	21% (+1%)	4% (-45%)
Green Party	84% (+64%)	14% (-12%)	1% (-47%)
Starmer	14% (+7%)	42% (+14%)	49% (-6%)

Note: (brackets) reflect comparison to all voters.

More Liberal views

Gaza:

Pro-Gaza: 75% (+41%)

Pro-Israel: 1% (-15%)

Skew Liberal

Liberal: 47% (+32%)

Migration

Prefer Higher: 39% (+27%)

Lower: 12% (-37%)

Economy Bad: 3% (-25%)

Good: 51% (+32%)

Brexit:

Remain: 76%

Re-join: 88%

Want greater EU-UK ties: 82% (+37%)

Research conducted by Dr. James Prentice

Data source: British Election Study 2025